

DOOR PENINSULA CORRIDOR

Green Bay to Door County

This 85-mile corridor provides the principal access to one of the state's premier recreation areas, Door County. The highway also provides access to one of the state's largest ship building and repair facilities in Sturgeon Bay. This is primarily a highway corridor. Much of this corridor carries nearly 10,000 vehicles daily, and even more than that during peak recreational periods.

